FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KEANE ORGANIZATION EXPANDS RETIREMENT SERVICES DIVISION WITH EXECUTIVE PROMOTIONS

Mary Steigerwalt Appointed President of Keane's Qualified Plan Solutions

Wayne, PA-April 24, 2008- The Keane Organization today announced a series of executive promotions to help propel its Qualified Plan Solutions \(QPS\) division as it expands its full range of services for retirement plan sponsors, record keepers, and third-party administrators (TPAs). The group helps manage missing participant challenges which impact terminated, abandoned, or active defined contribution and defined benefit plans.

Mary Steigerwalt has been appointed President of the QPS division, while Tara Altman has been promoted to Client Services Manager and Jason Sauer has advanced to Vice President of Sales.

“The challenge of missing participants is growing in light of constant changes in ERISA law, DOL guidelines, and IRS regulations,” says Steigerwalt. “Terminating a plan is an especially complicated task for plan sponsors and their service providers since it is usually tied to a disruptive event like a bankruptcy or merger which no one expects to happen. We are excited to expand the division with the addition of Tara and Jason to help us meet the growing need to assist companies facing these difficult and often confusing circumstances.”

Before joining Keane in 2005, Steigerwalt worked in the trade-publishing industry for fifteen years, where she served as Vice President of Operations. Steigerwalt has experience in all operational aspects of business, including acquiring, selling, launching new products and businesses. A member of the Society of Human Resources, Steigerwalt holds a management degree from LaSalle University.

"Mary has been a cornerstone in the growth and success of our Qualified Plan Solutions division," said Dorothy Flynn, CEO of The Keane Organization. "On behalf of The Keane Organization, I would like to congratulate Mary and her newly expanded team. Together, they bring the experience and expertise to help efficiently manage a host of risks and compliance issues that confront every 401(k) and DB plan fiduciary."

Previously serving as the Training and Documentation Manager for Keane's Investor Communications and Retention Solutions division, Altman will focus on serving and retaining Keane's existing clients in her new position as Client Services Manager. She has six years of experience in the Insurance industry and is licensed in Property and Casualty Insurance and Life and Health Insurance as a Pennsylvania Resident Agent. Altman holds a degree in Marketing with a minor in Information Systems from Clarion University.

Sauer will help manage partnerships with record keepers and TPAs, while developing new sales channels. He previously managed inside sales for Keane's Investor Communications and Retention Solutions division, and is a graduate of Valley Forge Christian College in Pennsylvania.
